

GOD THE THERAPIST

A True Story of a Man's
Search for his Soul

By Husain Sam-Tio Chung

An inspiring real life story of a man who finds the ultimate guiding and healing force and his courageous journey that helped thousands to uncover and connect with their on souls. Through the crucible of the author's own suffering, this story records a life of searching for an authentic connection with the Power that guided the prophets and giants of the past. Husain Chung developed his own version of spiritual psychodrama that was considered by many as the most powerful and effective work of the human potential personal encounter movement. This provided a method to help unravel the emotional and psychological chains that prevented people from becoming their true self for which they were destined.

About the author: Husain Chung worked as a rehabilitation psychologist with the mentally ill, veterans, alcoholics, and prison inmates in addition to counseling individuals, families, teenagers, and couples. He founded the Human Institute and the Psychodrama Theatre which had branches in Los Angeles and Palo Alto. As a faculty member of the Pepperdine University department, he taught psychodrama and group psychotherapy to graduate divinity and psychology students. Husain was an invited group leader in the seminal research study at Stanford University where he was the most highly rated for participants' individual learning, competency as a group leader, and charisma.

Husain was opened in San Francisco by John G. Bennett in March, 1958. The book describes the early days of Subud in America. Currently, Husain is a member of the Palo Alto, California group.

Husain Chung is one of the few people I have met in my life to whom I could apply the work 'genius'. That is someone who carries a truly original and outstanding gift. In this case it is to work in the medium of psychodrama.

I have rarely encountered a therapist with the broad gifts that Chung displayed as he solved difficult problems with the people with whom he worked. He is a unique explorer of the psyche, and a Sherlock Holmes in his problem solving.

Back in the 60s at Pepperdine when I was a psychology major, I took Chung's Psychodrama class. He inspired me to begin a lifelong spiritual journey, and for that I am eternally grateful. It was great to read more of his life before and after that period. Husain is an amazing man, and he's written an entertaining look at his interesting life.

You were a pivotal catalyst in my journey, without which my life would have had a very different life trajectory!
